

The Network's Biannual

Margaret J. Barr Student Research Award

Whereas, The Network: Addressing Collegiate Alcohol and Other Drug Issues (hereafter "The Network") is committed to addressing issues related to the use and abuse of alcohol and other drugs and the prevention of violence in institutions of higher education; and

Whereas, The Network, in 2006, has established an inaugural biannual student research award as an effort consistent with the organizational mission; and

Whereas, The Network has enlisted the aid of higher education professionals to serve as Council of Advisor members (hereafter "COA") in conducting our efforts; and

Whereas, The Network values the expertise, insight, perspectives, and engagement of COA members; and

Whereas, The Network desires to specifically recognize three years of exemplary voluntary service above and beyond the call of duty by COA Margaret J. Barr, former Vice President for Student Affairs and Professor Emerita at Northwestern University;

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved by The Network that the student research award will henceforth be known as The Network's Biannual Margaret J. Barr Student Research Award.

Dated this 15th day of December, 2006.
